IV. General Education Institutional Learning Outcomes
PTC supports a college-wide institutional learning assessment program which concerns effective instructional methods and promotes student learning achievement by assessing:

1. Communication
2. Critical Thinking
3. Cultural Awareness
4. Information Literacy
5. Professionalism
6. Quantitative Literacy
7. Technology Literacy
For more information, please consult the following website: http://www.pulaskitech.edu/sla/mission.asp

V. Department/Program Learning Outcomes
The Philosophy and Interdisciplinary Studies department, consistent with the College’s mission and the Division’s objectives, encourages the success of its students in all technical fields and academic disciplines by promoting:

1. Critical and creative thought
2. Effective argumentation with a focus on tone, purpose and audience.
3. Academic Integrity
4. Independent thinking and learning
5. Written communication on a collegiate level
6. Exposure to various cultures and subcultures
7. The influence of culture on individuals and their work
8. Collaborative study and writing

VI. Course Objectives
The student will:

- Demonstrate an introductory understanding of the field of gender studies.
- Develop an appreciation of the difference between sex and gender.
- Analyze sex, gender, and sexuality in culture.
- Develop a thorough understanding of the social and cultural construction of gender, sex, and sexuality.
- Construct a critical understanding of intersectionality, including an awareness of gender and its connections with other social, cultural, and biological categories, including but not limited to sex, race, ethnicity, class, nationality, sexuality, ability, and age.
- Cultivate reading and writing skills through the creation and analysis of written material.
- Demonstrate an ability to convey course concepts in a concise and clear manner through discussion and in writing.
- Demonstrate understanding concerning various feminist theories and the function gender roles have on the way we view the world.
- Demonstrate the ability to think critically and thoughtfully about the self and others through an understanding of how social, cultural, and biological categories shape our lives, and our understandings of the world.

VII. Attendance Policy
Agencies granting financial assistance may be notified of the violation of the attendance policy by students receiving financial aid. Attendance is taken starting the first day of the semester, with the exception of students who enroll after classes have started.

Teachers have the right to count students as absent if they arrive late to class, leave class early, or go in and out of the classroom during class time. Teachers have the right to lower a student’s grade based on excessive absences.

Any student who misses two consecutive weeks of class may be administratively withdrawn from the class. Any student who does not come to class within the first two weeks of class will be considered a “no show” according to the campus attendance policy and will be reported as such and dropped from the class.

Teachers have the right to enforce PTC’s administrative drop policy for days of consecutive nonattendance. Such particulars as determined by the instructor are detailed in the paragraph below.

Students who miss more than six days in a MWF class or more than four days in a class may be dropped a letter grade for each subsequent absence.

VIII. Classroom Policies
The PTC Catalogue rules and regulations will be enforced in this class at all times.

Please consult the following website for more information:
http://www.pulaskitech.edu/admission/web_catalog/

Professional behavior is required. Punctual attendance and intelligent participation are expected. Particulars as determined by the instructor are detailed in the paragraph below.

Treat others with respect. Do not make an exception for yourself. If you need to have a conversation related to something other than the topic at hand, do so outside of class.

IX. Grading

Letter grades will be based on the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Percentage Range</th>
<th>Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>90 to 100%</td>
<td>A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>80 to 89%</td>
<td>B</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>70 to 79%</td>
<td>C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>60 to 69%</td>
<td>D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0 to 59%</td>
<td>F</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Exams:
There will be two essay-type examinations worth 250 possible points each. Study questions for each exam will be distributed approximately one week prior to each examination. Each student must take his or her exam at the appropriate time for the section in which he or she is enrolled. Make-up examinations will be given only under extreme circumstances. The testing procedure for make-up examinations will be modified to account for the additional study and preparation time available to those students who are unable to take an examination at the regularly scheduled time.

Research Project:
Students will complete a research project worth 200 points covering a topic discussed in class. Perhaps you were inspired by reading about the social construction of gender in the U.S. and you want to research gender construction in another country. Perhaps you were moved by the article covering child prostitution in Thailand or heartbroken to read about the acid victims of Bangladesh. Whatever you decide to research, it MUST relate to gender studies in some way.

More details of this assignment will be given closer to the due date.

Short Review:
Students will write one short analytical reviews worth 100 points covering two different assigned readings in class. These short reviews will require students to read and explain their understanding of an article of their choosing. Students should explain the reading and their views on it. Additional research is NOT required. MLA format should be followed and grammatical errors kept to a minimum. The essays should be 2 to 2.5 pages in length and in 12 point Times New Roman font.

Class Participation: Class participation is based on participating on in class discussions, dialogue and polite debate with other students, proven reading of the text, and apparent competence in assigned readings.

X. Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students who attend PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The PTC Student Handbook states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”

The handbook also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

Plagiarism will not be tolerated under any circumstances and those that plagiarize their assignments will be dropped from the course.

The complete Academic Integrity Policy can be found in the PTC Student Handbook.

XI. Accommodation Policy

Services for Students with Disabilities: PTC is committed to fulfilling all federal requirements as stated in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Accommodations are available to students who have documented disabilities. Students who request accommodations must register with the Coordinator of Disability Services in Counseling Services (501-812-2220 or www.pulaskitech.edu) prior to the semester of planned enrollment, and must provide recent documentation of medical, educational, and/or psychological records.

Students who need accommodations should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course. Accommodations will only be provided if the instructor receives a letter of approved accommodations from the Coordinator of Disability Services. Failure to provide sufficient notification may result in a delay of services.

XII. Sexual Misconduct

No person at Pulaski Technical College will, on the basis of gender, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment or sexual misconduct under any education program or activity. All college administrative policies and procedures regarding sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct are in compliance with Title IX. Students who feel they are victims of sexual misconduct should contact the PTC Title IX Deputy Coordinator for Students:

Michelle Anderson, Dean of Students
Campus Center Building Room 212
501-812-2756
manderson@pulaskitech.edu

Additional information, including the PTC sexual assault policy, procedures, and resources may be found online at http://www.pulaskitech.edu/sexual_misconduct_awareness/.

XIII. Course Evaluations

Students may be asked to evaluate their instructor and course near the end of the semester. These student evaluations are very important to the improvement in the quality of instruction and course materials. All results are anonymous and shared with the faculty only after the semester is over and grades have been posted.

XIV. Information Literacy

PTC is committed to the Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education as established by the Association of College and Research Libraries and endorsed by the National Forum on Information Literacy. Therefore, all courses will incorporate an information literacy component so that, by graduation, all students will be able to recognize the need for information, then locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information in an ethical manner. Information literacy encompasses critical thinking, research, media, technology, health, business, and visual literacy skills to produce lifelong learners who can make informed decisions in the workplace and in their personal lives.
