Department / Program Learning Outcomes

The Education and Reading Department, consistent with the College’s mission and the Division’s objectives, encourages the success of its students in all technical fields and academic disciplines by promoting the following:

1. Identify word meanings based upon context clues.
2. Identify main idea, central point, implied main idea and supporting details in academic passages.
3. Read critically to make inferences from the reading selection.
4. Identify patterns of organization and relationships in academic readings.
5. Read critically to identify purpose, tone, fact, and opinion.

Student Learning / Course Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

1. Analyze context clues to determine the meaning of words and phrases.
2. Identify the stated and implied main idea and central point as well as supporting details in a passage.
3. Make inferences based upon information in reading passages.
4. Recognize the structure and organization of paragraphs in informational and literary text.
5. Recognize facts, opinions, purpose and tone in reading passages.
Policies

Report a Complaint or Concern

UA-PTC takes very seriously complaints and concerns regarding the institution. Most complaints or concerns of a specific nature should be initiated and resolved at the campus level through normal college processes whenever possible. UA - Pulaski Technical College receives and resolves complaints using a variety of methods. To report a complaint or concern, please follow the link below.

https://www.uaptc.edu/report-a-concern-complaint

UA-PTC Attendance Policy

Education at UA-PTC requires students’ active involvement in the learning process. Thus, students are expected to attend all classes and actively engage in all learning assignments and/or opportunities provided in their classes. Class attendance should be treated as mandatory by all students as attendance will be taken by all instructors during the first two weeks of class. Additionally, a written policy on student attendance that is tied to course objectives and included in a course syllabus will be provided for each course by instructors.

The Education and Reading Departmental Attendance Policy

Students are expected to attend all classes and actively engage in learning activities, discussions, and opportunities provided in this class. THERE ARE NO EXCUSED ABSENCES. Agencies granting financial assistance may be notified of the violation of the attendance policy by students receiving financial aid.

Students missing six scheduled meetings will have their grade dropped one letter grade per absence.

Late: Students who are late to class 15 minutes or more, or who leave 15 minutes or more early, will be marked tardy. Three tardies will be counted as one absence.

Course Policies

The UA-PTC Catalog rules and regulations will be enforced in this course at all times. Please consult the following website for more information: https://www.uaptc.edu/catalog

Professional behavior is required. Punctual attendance and intelligent participation are expected. Particulars as determined by the instructor are detailed in the paragraph below.

Appropriate behavior is expected for all communications, including any notes, email messages, or telephone conversations. Some guidelines for communication are included in this syllabus to help you.

[Insert specific course policy.]
Grading Policy

Letter grades will be based on the following scale:

- 90 to 100%  A
- 80 to 89%   B
- 70 to 79%   C
- 0 to 69%    NC

Evaluation: The overall course grade will be based upon reading assignments, chapter exams, MyReadingLab modules, the MRL post-assessment, and the final exam.

Reading Assignments and Exams: During the semester, a minimum of eight reading assignments will be required. In addition, twelve MRL modules are required to reinforce the major reading concepts. Students will complete and master these modules in the lab during assigned class time as well as outside of class. Students are expected to complete all assignments from the textbook and MyReadingLab.

Exams, MRL Post-Assessment, and Final Exam: There will be a minimum of five exams assessing the major concepts. At the end of the semester, students will complete the MyReadingLab post-assessment and the final exam.

Grading Distribution: The grading breakdown is as follows:

- Reading Assignments  30%
- Exams                  30%
- MyReadingLab Modules  20%
- MyReadingLab Post Assessment 10%
- Final Exam          10%
- Total             100%

* Instructors have one week to provide feedback and post grades for all assignments unless otherwise noted by a departmental policy that has been approved by the Dean of the School.

In an online class, eligibility for Financial Aid is based on student participation. Logging into the course does not constitute participation. For purposes of roster certification, students must complete a gradable attendance artifact.
Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students who attend UA-PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The UA-PTC catalog states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”

The catalog also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

The complete Academic Integrity Policy is in the UA-PTC code of conduct.

Accommodation Policy

Services for Students with Disabilities: UA-PTC is committed to fulfilling all federal requirements as stated in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the American with Disabilities Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Accommodations are available to students who have documented disabilities. Students who request accommodations must register with the Disability Services Office (Main Campus: 501-812-2738 or South Campus: 501-812-2862) and must provide current and relevant documentation.

Students requesting accommodations should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course or as soon as accommodations are approved. It is the student’s responsibility to provide their Accommodation Letter to the instructor. Accommodations are not retroactive and will only be provided once your instructor receives the Accommodation Letter.

Student Code of Conduct

All students are expected to abide by the UA-PTC Student Code of Conduct. For the full Student Code of Conduct, access the most current version of the UA-PTC Academic Catalog. http://uaptc.azurewebsites.net/docs/default-source/course-catalog/2017-18-academic-catalog.pdf?sfvrsn=a08a3038_2

Sexual Misconduct

No person at UA - Pulaski Technical College will, on the basis of gender, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment or sexual misconduct under any education program or activity. All college administrative policies and procedures regarding sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct are in compliance with Title IX. Students who feel they are victims of sexual misconduct should contact the UA-PTC Title IX Deputy Coordinator for Students:

Michelle Anderson, Director of Student Life and Leadership
Campus Center Building Room 216
501-812-2756
manderson@uaptc.edu
Course Evaluations

Students may be asked to evaluate their instructor and course near the end of the semester. These student evaluations are very important to the improvement in the quality of instruction and course materials. All results are anonymous and shared with the faculty only after the semester is over and grades have been posted.

Information Literacy

UA-PTC is committed to the Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education as established by the Association of College and Research Libraries and endorsed by the National Forum on Information Literacy. Therefore, all courses will incorporate an information literacy component so that, by graduation, all students will be able to recognize the need for information, then locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information in an ethical manner. Information literacy encompasses critical thinking, research, media, technology, health, business, and visual literacy skills to produce lifelong learners who can make informed decisions in the workplace and in their personal lives.
