It is expected that all students who attend UA-PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The UA-PTC catalog states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”
The catalog also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

The complete Academic Integrity Policy is in the UA-PTC code of conduct.

Regardless of intent, the first offense of plagiarism will result in a 0% for the assignment. The second offense, regardless of the assignment, will result in consultation with the Dean of Learning and removal from the course. Examples of blatant academic dishonesty, which is defined as an attempt to deceive, include:

- submitting part or whole of material from the Internet as if it is the student’s original composition;
- copying material from a source with no attempt at using quotation marks and/or documentation of the source;
- paraphrasing material from a source with no attempt at documentation of the source;
- recycling material from previous classes;
- simultaneously using material from another class without the permission of both instructors involved;
- buying papers;
- letting others write part or all of a paper; and
- all other instances in which the student attempts to circumvent creating an original composition for that assignment and/or attempts to deceive the audience about the sources used when composing the assignment.

Examples of accidental plagiarism, which is defined as sloppiness when working with sources, include:

- word-for-word copying from a presented source without the use of quotation marks;
- failure to acknowledge all quoted material from a presented source;
- patchwork plagiarism;
- paraphrase without documentation or with incomplete documentation; and
- all other instances in which the student, through carelessness with punctuation and/or documentation, fails to demonstrate good scholarship.
