Students will study a minimum of four works. Policies

Report a Complaint or Concern

UA-P TC takes very seriously complaints and concerns regarding the institution. Most complaints or concerns of a specific nature should be initiated and resolved at the campus level through normal college processes whenever possible. UA - Pulaski Technical College receives and resolves complaints using a variety of methods. To report a complaint or concern, please follow the link below.

https://www.uaptc.edu/report-a-concern-complaint

UA-P TC Attendance Policy

Education at UA-P TC requires students’ active involvement in the learning process. Thus, students are expected to attend all classes and actively engage in all learning assignments and/or opportunities provided in their classes. Class attendance should be treated as mandatory by all students as attendance will be taken by all instructors during the first two weeks of class. Additionally, a written policy on student attendance that is tied to course objectives and included in a course syllabus will be provided for each course by instructors.

Departmental Attendance Policy

If you do not complete an assignment for points in Blackboard in the first two weeks of class, you will be marked as never having attended even if you have communicated with me by email about the class and/or logged in to Blackboard. You have to actually complete work.

Course Policies

The UA-P TC Catalog rules and regulations will be enforced in this course at all times. Please consult the following website for more information: https://www.uaptc.edu/catalog

Professional behavior is required. Punctual attendance and intelligent participation are expected. Particulars as determined by the instructor are detailed in the paragraph below.

Appropriate behavior is expected for all communications, including any notes, email messages, or telephone conversations. Some guidelines for communication are included in this syllabus to help you.
CLASS DISRUPTION

Any classroom disruption will result in the disruptive student(s) receiving a warning. Persistent or severe disruptive behavior will result in the disruptive student being referred to the Dean of Students, the Dean of Fine Arts and Humanities, and/or the Vice President for Instruction for appropriate disciplinary action before being allowed to return to class. Excessive class disruptions throughout the semester will result in the student’s final grade being lowered up to one letter grade or the student being dropped from the course.

COMMUNICATION

I prefer you use course Messages in Blackboard to contact me. You may also email me. I check email regularly and will usually respond within 24 hours when school is in session. If you do not receive a response from me within 24 hours, send another email inquiring whether I received the first email. Please do not expect to receive responses during the weekend or during holiday hours.

BLOGS

Every blog prompt should have a thoughtful answer and follow the guidelines set forth in the blog instructions.

LATE WORK POLICY

No late work will be accepted in this course. In addition, missed work, including missed quizzes, missed essays, activities, and discussion board posts, will not be made up. If a special circumstance arises, contact me to discuss it.

GRADING POLICY

I know that as a conscientious student, you are each eager to receive your graded assignments back as quickly as possible. As an instructor, it is my goal to have all essays and other assignments graded within two weeks of the assignment’s due date when possible. Though I can’t guarantee it, I will do my absolute best. I strive to give each student the comments and feedback necessary to succeed on their future assignments; this takes quite a bit of time, so please exercise patience when waiting for graded assignments to be returned to you. Please do not email me to ask me if or when I have graded something until two weeks after the due date. I will have graded essays returned to students at least one week before the following essay is due.

ESSAY SUBMISSION POLICY

All essays must be typed, double spaced, and in 12-point Times New Roman. Essays MUST follow MLA format. In the upper left-hand corner of the first page, with one item per line, type YOUR NAME, INSTRUCTOR’S NAME, COURSE TITLE, and THE DATE. Underneath the date & centered above the first paragraph include the TITLE OF THE ESSAY. Do not use a separate title page. Your last name and the page number should appear in the upper right-hand corner of each page, starting with the first page. All the MLA Format rules can be found on the Purdue OWL website, and I have included appropriate links in the modules to help you find this information.

To submit an essay, scroll down to the bottom of the Blackboard assignment page, click on it, and attach the essay to the assignment. Then click “Submit.” Be sure you understand how to do so before the due date so you don’t run into any technical difficulties. Late work will not be accepted.

E-copies of all essays will be submitted to a plagiarism detection program.

Essays will not be graded until they are submitted correctly. Essays must be turned in by the deadline to be accepted. If you submit a paper and do not receive a grade on it within two weeks of submitting the paper, contact your instructor.

* Instructors have one week to provide feedback and post grades for all assignments unless otherwise noted by a departmental policy that has been approved by the Dean of the School.
English faculty have two weeks to provide feedback and post grades for papers 1000 words or more.
In an online class, eligibility for Financial Aid is based on student participation. Logging into the course does not constitute participation. For purposes of roster certification, students must complete a gradable attendance artifact.

*Accidental Plagiarism will be handled on a case-by-case basis.
*Blatant Plagiarism will receive zero credit.

Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students who attend UA-PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The UA-PTC catalog states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”

The catalog also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

The complete Academic Integrity Policy is in the UA-PTC code of conduct.

Plagiarism

It is expected that all writing that you submit in a class is your own original work, and that any sources of information that you consult are fully cited and properly integrated into your writing.

Regardless of intent, any paper that contains any form of plagiarism will earn a 0% for the assignment. Most plagiarism is accidental and results from mishandling of research or inadequate citations. Examples of accidental plagiarism include:

- word-for-word copying from any source without the use of quotation marks;
- failure to completely cite all quoted, summarized, or paraphrased material from a presented source;
- improper paraphrasing (i.e., paraphrased information that retains the grammatical structure and/or vocabulary of the original source).

In the case that any student plagiarizes information with the intent of cheating on a writing assignment, the instructor may choose a more severe penalty at their discretion. Examples of blatant plagiarism include:

- submitting any amount of material from the Internet or another outside source as if it is the student’s original composition;
- copying material from a source with no attempt at using quotation marks and/or citation of the source;
- paraphrasing material from a source with no attempt at documentation of the source;
- reuse of material from previous classes without the instructor’s express permission;
- simultaneously using material from another class without the permission of both instructors involved;
- buying papers;
- letting others write part or all of a paper; and
• all other instances in which the student attempts to circumvent creating an original composition for that assignment and/or attempts to deceive the audience about the sources used when composing the assignment.

You should review the information about plagiarism in textbooks and the Academic Integrity Policy in the UA-PTC Student Handbook, as it is your responsibility to demonstrate good scholarship in your writing.

*Accidental Plagiarism will be handled on a case-by-case basis.
*Blatant Plagiarism will receive zero credit.

Course Evaluations

Students may be asked to evaluate their instructor and course near the end of the semester. These student evaluations are very important to the improvement in the quality of instruction and course materials. All results are anonymous and shared with the faculty only after the semester is over and grades have been posted.

Information Literacy

UA-PTC is committed to the Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education as established by the Association of College and Research Libraries and endorsed by the National Forum on Information Literacy. Therefore, all courses will incorporate an information literacy component so that, by graduation, all students will be able to recognize the need for information, then locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information in an ethical manner. Information literacy encompasses critical thinking, research, media, technology, health, business, and visual literacy skills to produce lifelong learners who can make informed decisions in the workplace and in their personal lives.
