Course Requirements – Major Assignments

Readings

The assigned readings are the foundation for our class discussions, assignments, and exams. The assigned readings outlined for each chapter will be provided in each learning module. It is expected that students will complete readings before the assigned date. You are strongly encouraged to bring your text to class for reference. While not always discussed in class, all assigned readings represent testable material.

Speeches and Prep Work = 450 Points

You will deliver two in-class speeches this semester: a 2-3 minutes Introduction speech (100 points) and a 4-6 minutes Informative speech (200 points and 150 points prep assignments). Each speech will be given on a topic of your choosing (and instructor approval). Your grade on your presentations will be based, in part, on the materials you prepare for the presentation (e.g., outline and PowerPoint). The remainder of your grade will be based on meeting the requirements for oral delivery. Instructions for completing each speech are included in Blackboard and will be discussed later in the semester.

Speech topics not allowed: religion, abortion, marijuana, political topics.

*If you are considering one of these topics, or something similar, please speak to me early in the planning process.

Participation = 200 Points

Individual and informal group activities/assignments will be assigned in and out of class. Some assignments and activities will have a point value, but will not be graded; however, I reserve the right to lower points if assignments are not taken seriously or if students leave early.

Papers = 150 Points

You will deliver three papers this semester: a 1 page self-reflection (50 points), a conflict management analysis (50 points), and a reflection (25 points). The papers have unique writing perspectives, and specific guided questions to help with the construction of the paper. Sample papers are provided as guides.

Exams = 125 Points (3 Module Exams 25 Points each, Comprehensive Final 50 points)

Three module exams (25 points each) will be given during the semester and a comprehensive final (50 points). The exams will consist of multiple-choice questions. You are responsible for all the material presented in class discussions and your required readings for each exam.

Information Literacy (Research) Assignments = 75 Points

You will complete 3 information literacy assignments during the semester. Instructions for completing these assignments will be provided later in the semester.

Writing Expectations

To write effectively should be a given in college. Thus, your written work will be evaluated on both content and mechanics (spelling, grammar, and punctuation), and you are expected to proofread your writing before you turn in an assignment. You present yourself as an educated person and competent communicator when you show control of the mechanics of writing. Mistakes in spelling, grammar, and punctuation will not significantly affect your grade as long as the mistakes are few and minor. However, because major and consistent mistakes affect the meaning of an assignment and detract from your presentation of yourself as a competent communicator, they will lower your grade.

I highly recommended that you seek the assistance of the UA-PTC Tutoring Labs when preparing written assignments for this class.

Make-Up Policy

- Speeches may only be made up if you contact me via email or phone AND provide me with proper documentation within 48-hours of the absence. Proper documentation is official documentation from a doctor, hospital, funeral home, or officer of the court.
(accident reports/traffic citations), which verifies the reason for your absence. You are solely responsible for arranging a make-up video if approved.

- If official documentation and instructor notification is not provided within 24-hours of the absence, you will not be allowed to make-up the speech. Speeches must be made up the first class period after the original date of the assignment or a zero grade will be given for that assignment.
- There is no make-up for in-class activities, quizzes, and exercises that are missed. This includes any homework assignments that are associated with in-class activities. If you miss class, you miss the points.
- The exams will be posted for a short period of time on Blackboard, and you must take the test during that time. Make-ups on tests will not be allowed. No excuse for missing a test will be accepted. If you miss an exam, the next exam can replace that zero with the grade you earn on that exam (one time only – up to 25 points). The final does NOT apply to this policy.

LINC Policy

This LinCed course is specially designed to complement a specific English Composition I course. These classes must be taken in conjunction with each other and cannot be taken independently of each other. You should be willing to dedicate yourself to successfully completing the coursework for both classes. Please be aware, in this course, the instructor will be regularly sharing information pertaining to your academic performance in this course with the instructor of the linked course. Be aware that the instructor may share information about academic progress, grades, assignments, attendance, and contact information with the linked instructor.

Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students who attend UA-PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The UA-PTC catalog states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”

The catalog also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

The complete Academic Integrity Policy is in the UA-PTC code of conduct.

Accommodation Policy

Accommodations are available to students who have documented disabilities. Students who request accommodations must

Course Evaluations

Students may be asked to evaluate their instructor and course near the end of the semester. These student evaluations are very important to the improvement in the quality of instruction and course materials. All results are anonymous and shared with the faculty only after the semester is over and grades have been posted.

Information Literacy

UA-PTC is committed to the Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education as established by the Association of College and Research Libraries and endorsed by the National Forum on Information Literacy. Therefore, all courses will incorporate an information literacy component so that, by graduation, all students will be able to recognize the need for information, then locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information in an ethical manner. Information literacy encompasses critical thinking, research, media, technology, health, business, and visual literacy skills to produce lifelong learners who can make informed decisions in the workplace and in their personal lives.
