The English discipline in the Department of Languages and Communication, consistent with the College’s mission and the objectives of the School of Fine Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences, encourages the success of its students in all technical fields and academic disciplines by promoting the following learning outcomes:

1. Students will demonstrate the ability to analyze different contexts and audiences and then to act on that analysis in comprehending and creating texts.
2. Students will demonstrate the ability to analyze, synthesize, interpret, compose, and evaluate ideas, information, situations, and texts.
3. Students will use multiple strategies to conceptualize, develop, and finalize projects and adapt their composing processes to different contexts and occasions.
4. Students will develop knowledge of conventions, including linguistic structures such as grammar, punctuation, and spelling as well as citation and documentation, through practice in composing and revising.
5. Students will investigate significant literary and cultural developments as well as the interaction of various literary and cultural traditions and illustrate how literature reflects history, culture, and society.
6. Students will read and analyze texts and identify various techniques, genre characteristics, movements, methods, or themes.
Student Learning / Course Outcomes

ACTS #ENGL 1013

The student will:

1. Respond appropriately to various rhetorical situations, purposes, and audiences
2. Use writing and reading for inquiry, learning, thinking, and communicating
3. Integrate original ideas with those of others
4. Develop flexible strategies for generating, revising, editing, and proofreading
5. Use collaborative writing processes
6. Demonstrate knowledge of structure, paragraphing, tone, mechanics, syntax, grammar, and documentation

Composition I focuses on communicating ideas clearly. Students practice methods of drafting, including how to create a thesis and how to support and develop that thesis in a focused, thorough, and stylistically appropriate essay that demonstrates awareness of audience and the conventions of medium and genre. The class will focus on writing strategies such as invention, arrangement, drafting, and revision, including teamwork with the instructor and/or classmates in the writing process, fluency issues such as the use of transitions, and the correction of major usage errors. The class requires students to read texts critically and to practice good scholarship through the conventions of style and documentation. Students will practice integrating summary, paraphrase, and quotation into their own original compositions. Students write a minimum of fifteen pages of formal writing to be divided among at least four major compositions that address at least four of the following six genres: argument, narrative, analysis, report, review, and proposal. One must be a research paper that incorporates material from quality sources.

Policies

Report a Complaint or Concern

UA-PTC takes very seriously complaints and concerns regarding the institution. Most complaints or concerns of a specific nature should be initiated and resolved at the campus level through normal college processes whenever possible. UA - Pulaski Technical College receives and resolves complaints using a variety of methods. To report a complaint or concern, please follow the link below.

UA-PTC Attendance Policy

Education at UA-PTC requires students’ active involvement in the learning process. Thus, students are expected to attend all classes and actively engage in all learning assignments and/or opportunities provided in their classes. Class attendance should be treated as mandatory by all students as attendance will be taken by all instructors during the first two weeks of class. Additionally, a written policy on student attendance that is tied to course objectives and included in a course syllabus will be provided for each course by instructors.
Online class attendance: Students are expected to log on to Blackboard AT LEAST once a week. Any student who fails to log on and complete at least one assignment during the first week will be dropped from the class as a no-show.

In an online class, eligibility for Financial Aid is based on student participation. Logging into the course does not constitute participation. For purposes of roster certification, students must complete a gradable attendance artifact.

Departmental Attendance Policy
Instructor policies: Consistent class attendance is vital to academic success, and attendance in this course is mandatory. Your participation in discussion boards is required.

All late work is subject to penalty (see Grading Policy). Students will submit final versions of formal writing assignments through Blackboard; any assignment submitted after the due date will lose points.

Course Policies

The UA-PTC Catalog rules and regulations will be enforced in this course at all times. Please consult the following website for more information: https://www.uaptc.edu/catalog

Professional behavior is required. Punctual attendance and intelligent participation are expected. Particulars as determined by the instructor are detailed in the paragraph below.

Appropriate behavior is expected for all communications, including any notes, email messages, or telephone conversations. Some guidelines for communication are included in this syllabus to help you.

Preparation and participation: The goal for everyone in this class (including me) is for each student to improve his or her writing, editing, and research skills, to earn at least a “C” in this course, which is required to take Composition II and/or to transfer credit. To achieve this goal, everyone has to work. I expect students to have and use their course materials. Any assignments should be complete and ready to submit each week. Students should be ready to participate in class discussion and activities.

Communications: Any emails from me will go to the student’s UA-PTC email address, and email to me should come from the student’s UA-PTC email account due to FERPA laws. Check your email regularly, if not daily.

I check my email at least once every weekday (usually more frequently). If you need to contact me, please use my UA-PTC email address, rather than Blackboard messages, which do not come to my email address.

Class behavior: Students should show respect to their classmates by responding to one another in a professional, courteous way at all times. If objectionable behavior persists after a warning, I will take further action.
How to succeed in this class (short version):
   Turn in all assignments, and turn them in on time.

Grading Policy

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Application letter</td>
<td>50</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Narrative essay (essay 1)</td>

<td>150</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Total number of points possible: 800

If an essay does not meet the basic requirements of the assignment (particularly minimum word count or topic), it must be rewritten for credit. In these cases, I will notify the student.

Classwork (homework, informal writing assignments, quizzes, other assignments): 10-50 points each

* Instructors have one week to provide feedback and post grades for all assignments unless otherwise noted by a departmental policy that has been approved by the Dean of the School.
English instructors have two weeks to provide feedback and post grades for papers 1000 words or more.
All formal writing must be submitted electronically through Blackboard.

Late work: Every formal writing assignment will be submitted electronically through Blackboard and will include a due date.

- Formal writing turned in 1-48 hours late will be docked five points.
- Formal writing turned in after two days will lose 10 points.
- Formal writing assignments will close after a week. At that point, students must get permission from the instructor to submit an essay (rare, extenuating circumstances only!), and the late penalty will still apply. If a student does not submit an essay, the student will receive a zero for the assignment in Blackboard.

Please note, it is nearly impossible to make a C or higher with a zero on a major assignment. If this happens before the last day to withdraw (April 17), the student may want to withdraw from the class. If a student wants to discuss this option with me first, he or she should email or call me.

Classwork submitted late will receive half credit, and I will not accept any classwork that is more than one week late.

Extra credit: I rarely, if ever, give extra credit assignments. It is more beneficial for student to focus on the assigned work. Any extra credit opportunity has to be offered to the entire class, so please don’t ask for extra credit assignments.

Grades on Blackboard: I will use Blackboard through the UA-PTC portal to record grades. You will be able to see these grades, and you can access Blackboard through any computer with Internet service. Once I start grading assignments, check your grade frequently.

If you are concerned about your grade at any point, contact me.

Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students who attend UA-PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The UA-PTC catalog states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”

The catalog also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

The complete Academic Integrity Policy is in the UA-PTC code of conduct.

Plagiarism

It is expected that all writing that you submit in a class is your own original work, and that any sources of information that you consult are fully cited and properly integrated into your writing.

Regardless of intent, any paper that contains any form of plagiarism will earn a 0% for the assignment. Most plagiarism is accidental and results from mishandling of research or inadequate citations. Examples of accidental plagiarism include:

- word-for-word copying from any source without the use of quotation marks;
- failure to completely cite all quoted, summarized, or paraphrased material from a presented source;
- improper paraphrasing (i.e., paraphrased information that retains the grammatical structure and/or vocabulary of the original source).
In the case that any student plagiarizes information with the intent of cheating on a writing assignment, the instructor may choose a more severe penalty at his or her discretion. Examples of blatant plagiarism include:

- submitting any amount of material from the Internet or another outside source as if it is the student’s original composition;
- copying material from a source with no attempt at using quotation marks and/or citation of the source;
- paraphrasing material from a source with no attempt at documentation of the source;
- reuse of material from previous classes without the instructor’s express permission; “I do not accept work that has been graded previously.”
- simultaneously using material from another class without the permission of both instructors involved;
- buying papers;
- letting others write part or all of a paper; and
- all other instances in which the student attempts to circumvent creating an original composition for that assignment and/or attempts to deceive the audience about the sources used when composing the assignment.

You should review the information about plagiarism in textbooks and the Academic Integrity Policy in the UA-PTC Student Handbook, as it is your responsibility to demonstrate good scholarship in your writing.

Accommodation Policy

Services for Students with Disabilities: UA-PTC is committed to fulfilling all federal requirements as stated in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the American with Disabilities Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Accommodations are available to students who have documented disabilities. Students who request accommodations must register with the Disability Services Office (Main Campus: 501-812-2738 or South Campus: 501-812-2862) and must provide current and relevant documentation.

Students requesting accommodations should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course or as soon as accommodations are approved. It is the student’s responsibility to provide their Accommodation Letter to the instructor. Accommodations are not retroactive and will only be provided once your instructor receives the Accommodation Letter.

Student Code of Conduct

All students are expected to abide by the UA-PTC Student Code of Conduct. For the full Student Code of Conduct, access the most current version of the UA-PTC Academic Catalog. Sexual Misconduct

No person at UA-Pulaski Technical College will, on the basis of gender, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment or sexual misconduct under any education program or activity. All college administrative policies and procedures regarding sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct are in

Course Evaluations
Students may be asked to evaluate their instructor and course near the end of the semester. These student evaluations are very important to the improvement in the quality of instruction and course materials. All results are anonymous and shared with the faculty only after the semester is over and grades have been posted.

Information Literacy
UA-PTC is committed to the Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education as established by the Association of College and Research Libraries and endorsed by the National Forum on Information Literacy. Therefore, all courses will incorporate an information literacy component so that, by graduation, all students will be able to recognize the need for information, then locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information in an ethical manner. Information literacy encompasses critical thinking, research, media, technology, health, business, and visual literacy skills to produce lifelong learners who can make informed decisions in the workplace and in their personal lives.
