1. Students will demonstrate the ability to analyze different contexts and audiences and then to act on that analysis in comprehending and creating texts.

2. Students will demonstrate the ability to analyze, synthesize, interpret, compose, and evaluate ideas, information, situations, and texts.

3. Students will use multiple strategies to conceptualize, develop, and finalize projects and adapt their composing processes to different contexts and occasions.

4. Students will develop knowledge of conventions, including linguistic structures such as grammar, punctuation, and spelling as well as citation and documentation, through practice in composing and revising.

5. Students will investigate significant literary and cultural developments as well as the interaction of various literary and cultural traditions and illustrate how literature reflects history, culture, and society.

6. Students will read and analyze texts and identify various techniques, genre characteristics, movements, methods, or themes.

Student Learning / Course Outcomes

ACTS #ENGL 1013
The student will:
1. Respond appropriately to various rhetorical situations, purposes, and audiences
2. Use writing and reading for inquiry, learning, thinking, and communicating
3. Integrate original ideas with those of others
4. Develop flexible strategies for generating, revising, editing, and proof-reading
5. Use collaborative writing processes
6. Demonstrate knowledge of structure, paragraphing, tone, mechanics, syntax, grammar, and documentation

Composition I focuses on communicating ideas clearly. Students practice methods of drafting, including how to create a thesis and how to support and develop that thesis in a focused, thorough, and stylistically appropriate essay that demonstrates awareness of audience and the conventions of medium and genre. The class will focus on writing strategies such as invention, arrangement, drafting, and revision, including teamwork with the instructor and/or classmates in the writing process, fluency issues such as the use of transitions, and the correction of major usage errors. The class requires students to read texts critically and to practice good scholarship through the conventions of style and documentation. Students practice integrating summary, paraphrase, and quotation into their own original compositions. Students write a minimum of fifteen pages of formal writing to be divided among at least four major compositions that address at least four of the following six genres: argument, narrative, analysis, report, review, and proposal. One must be a research paper that incorporates material from quality sources.

Policies

Report a Complaint or Concern

UA-PTC takes very seriously complaints and concerns regarding the institution. Most complaints or concerns of a specific nature should be initiated and resolved at the campus level through normal college processes whenever possible. UA - Pulaski Technical College receives and resolves complaints using a variety of methods. To report a complaint or concern, please follow the link below.

UA-PTC Attendance Policy

Education at UA-PTC requires students’ active involvement in the learning process. Thus, students are expected to attend all classes and actively engage in all learning assignments and/or opportunities provided in their classes. Class attendance should be treated as mandatory by all students as attendance will be taken by all instructors during the first two weeks of class. Additionally, a written policy on student attendance that is tied to course objectives and included in a course syllabus will be provided for each course by instructors.
Departmental Attendance Policy

Agencies granting financial assistance may be notified of the violation of the attendance policy by students receiving financial aid.

Attendance is taken starting the first day of the semester, with the exception of students who enroll after classes have started. Teachers have the right to count students as absent if they arrive late to class*, leave class early, or go in and out of the classroom during class time.

Any student who does not attend class the first two weeks of school will be considered a “No Show” according to the campus attendance policy and will be reported as such and dropped from the class.

*A student entering the class 15 minutes or more after the designated class time may not be able to enter the classroom.

Course Policies

The UA-PTC Catalog rules and regulations will be enforced in this course at all times. Please consult the following website for more information: https://www.uaptc.edu/catalog

Professional behavior is required. Punctual attendance and intelligent participation are expected. Particulars as determined by the instructor are detailed in the paragraph below.

1. If you excessively text or answer your phone in class, you will be asked to leave and will be counted absent.
2. Excessive tardiness will result in a lower participation grade and/or absences.
3. Please do not sleep in class. You will be counted absent and asked to leave.
4. Please respect me as your instructor and other students. Any display of disrespect will result in removal from the class.
5. Children and other visitors (i.e. friends) are not allowed in class.
6. Do not cheat or plagiarize. If you are caught cheating or plagiarizing, you will automatically be given the grade “F” for the assignment and may be assigned a failing grade for the course as well. Any plagiarized paper will receive a zero and the student may be immediately dropped from the class with a final grade of “F”. “Plagiarism” would be noted on the official drop slip. Any evidence of cheating on exams will be handled in the same manner; students will receive a zero on the exam and may be immediately dropped from the class with a final grade of “F”. “Cheating” would be noted on the official drop slip.
7. I reserve the right to handle incidents of suspected cheating on a case-by-case basis as I see fit, particularly involving cases of copied homework and/or cheating on exams or quizzes.
8. All work must follow the directions of the assignment and may be returned without a grade or a grade of zero (0) if it does not adhere to the directions.

9. If we need to meet outside of class, I will be happy to make an appointment with you. Also, I will return voicemails and emails within 24 hours during the week (Monday – Friday) and 48 hours on the weekend.

10. Please use proper, professional email etiquette at all times and be as clear and detailed as possible for me to best respond to your needs.

Appropriate behavior is expected for all communications, including any notes, email messages, or telephone conversations.

Class Work

Students who miss in-class assignments will not be able to make it up, as it is deemed in-class work.

Late Work
Late work is highly discouraged. For your benefit, you need to submit your essays on time to avoid late credit (or no credit) and to receive timely feedback. Your paper will lose ten points per day up to three days. Once you are beyond three days of the due date, your paper will NOT be accepted.

* Instructors have one week to provide feedback and post grades for all assignments unless otherwise noted by a departmental policy that has been approved by the Dean of the School.

English faculty have two weeks to provide feedback and post grades for papers 1000 words or more.

In an online class, eligibility for Financial Aid is based on student participation. Logging into the course does not constitute participation. For purposes of roster certification, students must complete a gradable attendance artifact.

Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students who attend UA-PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The UA-PTC catalog states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”

The catalog also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

The complete Academic Integrity Policy is in the UA-PTC code of conduct.

Plagiarism

It is expected that all writing that you submit in a class is your own original work, and that any sources of information that you consult are fully cited and properly integrated into your writing.

Regardless of intent, any paper that contains any form of plagiarism will earn a 0% for the assignment. Most plagiarism is accidental and results from mishandling of research or inadequate citations. Examples of accidental plagiarism include:

- word-for-word copying from any source without the use of quotation marks;
- failure to completely cite all quoted, summarized, or paraphrased material from a presented source;
- improper paraphrasing (i.e., paraphrased information that retains the grammatical structure and/or vocabulary of the original source).

In the case that any student plagiarizes information with the intent of cheating on a writing assignment, the instructor may choose a more severe penalty at their discretion. Examples of blatant plagiarism include:
• submitting any amount of material from the Internet or another outside source as if it is the student’s original composition;
• copying material from a source with no attempt at using quotation marks and/or citation of the source;
• paraphrasing material from a source with no attempt at documentation of the source;
• reuse of material from previous classes without the instructor’s express permission;
• simultaneously using material from another class without the permission of both instructors involved;
• buying papers;
• letting others write part or all of a paper; and
• all other instances in which the student attempts to circumvent creating an original composition for that assignment and/or attempts to deceive the audience about the sources used when composing the assignment.

You should review the information about plagiarism in textbooks and the Academic Integrity Policy in the UA-PTC Student Handbook, as it is your responsibility to demonstrate good scholarship in your writing.

For this course, if a paper is found to be plagiarized, you will receive a zero. If you plagiarize for a second time, you will be referred to the dean of students. Safe Assign will be the tool used to flag plagiarism. This device will be turned on in Blackboard during your submission of any essay or writing. Any forms of plagiarism will result in a zero grade.

All results are anonymous and shared with the faculty only after the semester is over and grades have been posted.

Information Literacy

UA-PTC is committed to the Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education as established by the Association of College and Research Libraries and endorsed by the National Forum on Information Literacy. Therefore, all courses will incorporate an information literacy component so that, by graduation, all students will be able to recognize the need for information, then locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information in an ethical manner. Information literacy encompasses critical thinking, research, media, technology, health, business, and visual literacy skills to produce lifelong learners who can make informed decisions in the workplace and in their personal lives.
