Policies

Report a Complaint or Concern

UA-PTC takes very seriously complaints and concerns regarding the institution. Most complaints or concerns of a specific nature should be initiated and resolved at the campus level through normal college processes whenever possible. UA - Pulaski Technical College receives and resolves complaints using a variety of methods. To report a complaint or concern, please follow the link below.

https://www.uaptc.edu/report-a-concern-complaint
UA-PTC Attendance Policy

Education at UA-PTC requires students’ active involvement in the learning process. Thus, students are expected to attend all classes and actively engage in all learning assignments and/or opportunities provided in their classes. Class attendance should be treated as mandatory by all students as attendance will be taken by all instructors during the first two weeks of class. Additionally, a written policy on student attendance that is tied to course objectives and included in a course syllabus will be provided for each course by instructors.

Course Attendance Policy

Any student who does not log in or complete any work in the class within the first two weeks of class will be considered a “no show” according to the campus attendance policy and will be reported.

Participation online is essential to being successful in this class.

You need to not only complete your assignments but discuss the works regularly with me and your fellow classmates through group discussions.

Course Policies

The UA-PTC Catalog rules and regulations will be enforced in this course at all times. Please consult the following website for more information: https://www.uaptc.edu/catalog

Professional behavior is required. Punctual attendance and intelligent participation are expected. Particulars as determined by the instructor are detailed in the paragraph below.

Appropriate behavior is expected for all communications, including any notes, email messages, or telephone conversations. Some guidelines for communication are included in the course to help you.

- absolutely no one is allowed to write derogatory remarks in regards to race, class, gender, or religion.
- students keep up with expected assignments and due dates on Blackboard—see note below*
- Readings and textbooks: When you don’t understand your reading assignment, read it again and outline the material. Find and share resources that might help you or others. You are responsible for gaining access to the textbooks in a timely manner; if the books are not available from the bookstore, it is your responsibility to let me know.

A college course is supposed to provide an opportunity to be exposed to viewpoints different from yours and the ability to think critically about these viewpoints.

Be respectful of others’ opinions.

Late Assignments and Grading

The goal is to show me your understanding of the material we are covering. I am not interested in reading the content of online resources (like Sparknotes for example); I am wanting to see your informed ideas about the texts.

Late work: In order for a discussion to work, everyone must be blogging on the same topic in a narrow time frame. If you fall behind, you are missing out on the only option you have to interact with your classmates. Most assignment remain open beyond the due date. Work received more than a week after the due date will be penalized 50% of the assignment. Once an assignment on the portal has closed I will no longer accept it, and you will earn a “0”.

If there are extenuating circumstances, you must email me to ask permission for me to reopen the assignment. Please do not email assignments—they will not be accepted unless submitted through Blackboard portal.

Grades will be available to you at any time on Blackboard.

Please check the site regularly to keep up with your progress in the course. If you ever have a question about your grade, please ask me about it promptly. The longer you wait; the less likely we will be able to easily determine the problem.
Keep electronic copies of all work submitted until the end of the semester. Blackboard fails from time to time, and you should always keep your work in another online location. For blogs, I would suggest typing them in a document that you save. To submit you may upload a copy of the file.

In an online class, eligibility for Financial Aid is based on student participation. Logging into the course does not constitute participation. For purposes of roster certification, students must complete a gradable attendance artifact.

Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students who attend UA-PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The UA-PTC catalog states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”

The catalog also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

The complete Academic Integrity Policy is in the UA-PTC code of conduct.

Plagiarism

It is expected that all writing that you submit in a class is your own original work, and that any sources of information that you consult are fully cited and properly integrated into your writing.

Regardless of intent, any paper that contains any form of plagiarism will earn a 0% for the assignment. Most plagiarism is accidental and results from mishandling of research or inadequate citations. Examples of accidental plagiarism include:

- word-for-word copying from any source without the use of quotation marks;
- failure to completely cite all quoted, summarized, or paraphrased material from a presented source;
- improper paraphrasing (i.e., paraphrased information that retains the grammatical structure and/or vocabulary of the original source).

In the case that any student plagiarizes information with the intent of cheating on a writing assignment, the instructor may choose a more severe penalty at their discretion. Examples of blatant plagiarism include:

- submitting any amount of material from the Internet or another outside source as if it is the student’s original composition;
- copying material from a source with no attempt at using quotation marks and/or citation of the source;
- paraphrasing material from a source with no attempt at documentation of the source;
- reuse of material from previous classes without the instructor’s express permission;
- simultaneously using material from another class without the permission of both instructors involved;
- buying papers;
- letting others write part or all of a paper; and
- all other instances in which the student attempts to circumvent creating an original composition for that assignment and/or attempts to deceive the audience about the sources used when composing the assignment.

You should review the information about plagiarism in textbooks and the Academic Integrity Policy in the UA-PTC Student Handbook, as it is your responsibility to demonstrate good scholarship in your writing.

Plagiarism and academic dishonesty:

Don’t plagiarize.

It is your responsibility to avoid all forms of plagiarism in all writing for this course.

Throughout your academic career, you will be asked to perform academic research, which includes compiling, analyzing, and essentially evaluating claims others have made based on evidence – a skill not limited to literature or writing courses, but applied in every subject.

We will go over thoroughly in this course what constitutes plagiarism, how to avoid plagiarism, and the correct methods with which to document the evidence that you have gathered. We will discuss the use of primary sources, secondary sources, and MLA documentation material that will assist you in creating a well-balanced, well-thought out essay in response to your readings.

All major writing assignments will be submitted to Safe Assign to determine if work is plagiarized.

Accommodation Policy

Services for Students with Disabilities: UA-PTC is committed to fulfilling all federal requirements as stated in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the American with Disabilities Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Accommodations are available to students who have documented disabilities. Students who request accommodations must register with the Disability Services Office (Main Campus: 501-812-2738 or South Campus: 501-812-2862) and must provide current and relevant documentation.

Students requesting accommodations should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course or as soon as accommodations are approved. It is the student's responsibility to provide their Accommodation Letter to the instructor. Accommodations are not retroactive and will only be provided once your instructor receives the Accommodation Letter.

Student Code of Conduct

All students are expected to abide by the UA-PTC Student Code of Conduct. For the full Student Code of Conduct, access the most current version of the UA-PTC Academic Catalog. Sexual Misconduct

No person at UA-Pulaski Technical College will, on the basis of gender, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment or sexual misconduct under any education program or activity. All college administrative policies and procedures regarding sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct are in compliance with Title IX. Students who feel they are victims of sexual misconduct should contact the UA-PTC Title IX Deputy Coordinator for Students:

Course Evaluations

Students may be asked to evaluate their instructor and course near the end of the semester. These student evaluations are very important to the improvement in the quality of instruction and course materials. All results are anonymous and shared with the faculty only after the semester is over and grades have been posted.

Information Literacy

UA-PTC is committed to the Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education as established by the Association of College and Research Libraries and endorsed by the National Forum on Information Literacy. Therefore, all courses will incorporate an information literacy component so that, by graduation, all students will be able to recognize the need for information, then locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information in an ethical manner. Information literacy encompasses critical thinking, research, media, technology, health, business, and visual literacy skills to produce lifelong learners who can make informed decisions in the workplace and in their personal lives.

Tentative Course Schedule

Tentative Schedules are posted on Blackboard and are updated regularly. Please check email daily for any possible announcements or changes to schedule.

Final Exam Schedule: TBA
