Policies

Report a Complaint or Concern

UA-PTC takes very seriously complaints and concerns regarding the institution. Most complaints or concerns of a specific nature should be initiated and resolved at the campus level through normal college processes whenever possible. UA - Pulaski Technical College receives and resolves complaints using a variety of methods. To report a complaint or concern, please follow the link below.

UA-PTC Attendance Policy

Education at UA-PTC requires students’ active involvement in the learning process. Thus, students are expected to attend all classes and actively engage in all learning assignments and/or opportunities provided in their classes. Class attendance should be treated as mandatory by all students as attendance will be taken by all instructors during the first two weeks of class. Additionally, a written policy on student attendance that is tied to course objectives and included in a course syllabus will be provided for each course by instructors.

Last day to drop a class is January 15, 2019.

Course Policies

The UA-PTC Catalog rules and regulations will be enforced in this course at all times. Please consult the following website for more information: https://www.uaptc.edu/catalog

Professional behavior is required. Punctual attendance and intelligent participation are expected. Particulars as determined by the instructor are detailed in the paragraph below.

Coming to class and leaving during class will be considered an absence for the class (unless authorized by the instructor prior to class). Arriving 20 minutes or later to class (unless authorized by the instructor, prior to class) will be considered an absence. After 5 absences, the student’s final grade will be dropped a letter grade. For every absence after 5, the student’s final grade will drop an additional letter grade.

Appropriate behavior is expected for all communications, including any notes, email messages, or telephone conversations. Some guidelines for communication are included in this syllabus to help you.

Class policies such as food in class, addressing of instructor, etc., will conform to the college policy and if one does not exist, as the instructor announces.

Please do not conduct side conversations with other students during lectures.

Student’s may not bring children to class.

NO EAR BUDS or other devices used to listen to phones and music players during class is permitted. NO Skyping, texting, or electronic gaming is permitted. Please use cell phones / pagers with courtesy to the class- on “vibrate” with discussions outside of the classroom.

No use of tobacco, electronic cigarettes or vapor devices is allowed.

Please attempt to be on time, it is very disrupting for students to consistently arrive late.

Due to the nature of this course we will be discussing sensitive topics and mental health disorders that students in the class may be experiencing or have experiences. Respect for others and yourself is a requirement of this class. Those who are unable to act in a respectful manner will be asked to speak with the instructor as a first step and if this behavior continues further consequences will be discussed.

Academic Integrity

It is expected that all students who attend UA-PTC conduct themselves in a manner appropriate for the college experience. Academic integrity is a vital component of collegiate behavior. The UA-PTC catalog states, “The gaining of knowledge and the practice of honesty go hand-in-hand.”
The catalog also states, “The responsibility and authority of initiating discipline arising from violations of the rules against dishonesty during the process of the course are vested in the instructor of that course.”

The Handbook states, "Cheating in any form (including using unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise); plagiarism, falsification of records, unauthorized possession of examinations; any and other actions that may improperly affect the evaluation of student's academic performance or achievement; and assisting others in such act is forbidden. An instructor who has proof that a student is guilty of cheating may take appropriate action up to and including assigning a grade of "F" for the course and suspending the student from class. A description of the incident and the action will be reported by the instructor to the dean of student services and will be placed in the student's file in the Student Services Office. The student may appeal either the finding of cheating or the penalty, or both, to the dean of student services.”

At a minimum, but not limited to, cheating is defined in this class is as follows:

a) Copying answers from another student
b) Requesting a copy of a student’s test for reference in respect to completion of a test
c) Requesting an answer from a student’s test (or student)
d) Copying another student’s discussion post
e) Copying or cutting and pasting any material from copyrighted text without citing the source
f)
If cheating occurs options the instructor may implement are:

a) Assignment’s achieved points may be split between involved students and / or additional work required.
b) The cheating incident reported to the Dean of Students

The complete Academic Integrity Policy is in the UA-PTC code of conduct.

Accommodation Policy

Services for Students with Disabilities: UA-PTC is committed to fulfilling all federal requirements as stated in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the American with Disabilities Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Accommodations are available to students who have documented disabilities. Students who request accommodations must register with the Disability Services Office (Main Campus: 501-812-2738 or South Campus: 501-812-2862) and must provide current and relevant documentation.
Students requesting accommodations should inform the instructor at the beginning of the course or as soon as accommodations are approved. It is the student's responsibility to provide their Accommodation Letter to the instructor. Accommodations are not retroactive and will only be provided once your instructor receives the Accommodation Letter.

Student Code of Conduct

All students are expected to abide by the UA-PTC Student Code of Conduct. For the full Student Code of Conduct, access the most current version of the UA-PTC Academic Catalog. http://uaptc.azurewebsites.net/docs/default-source/course-catalog/2017-18-academic-catalog.pdf?sfvrsn=a08a3038_2

Sexual Misconduct

No person at Pulaski Technical College will, on the basis of gender, be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to sex discrimination, sexual harassment or sexual misconduct under any education program or activity. All college administrative policies and procedures regarding sex discrimination, sexual harassment, and sexual misconduct are in compliance with Title IX. Students who feel they are victims of sexual misconduct should contact the UA-PTC Title IX Deputy Coordinator for Students:

Michelle Anderson, Director of Student Life and Leadership
Campus Center Building Room 216
501-812-2756
manderson@uaptc.edu

Course Evaluations

Students may be asked to evaluate their instructor and course near the end of the semester. These student evaluations are very important to the improvement in the quality of instruction and course materials. All results are anonymous and shared with the faculty only after the semester is over and grades have been posted.

Information Literacy

UA-PTC is committed to the Information Literacy Competency Standards for Higher Education as established by the Association of College and Research Libraries and endorsed by the National Forum on Information Literacy. Therefore, all courses will incorporate an information literacy component so that, by graduation, all students will be able to recognize the need for information, then locate, evaluate, synthesize, and communicate information in an ethical manner. Information literacy encompasses critical thinking, research, media, technology, health, business, and visual literacy skills to produce lifelong learners who can make informed decisions in the workplace and in their personal lives.

Grading Policy

* Instructors have one week to provide feedback and post grades for all assignments unless otherwise noted by a departmental policy that has been approved by the Dean of the School.

In an online class, eligibility for Financial Aid is based on student participation. Logging into the course does not constitute participation. For purposes of roster certification, students must complete a gradable attendance artifact.

In this class, grades will be based on the percentage of the total points available earned during the semester. A total of 550 points are available. Please reference the above graph for the “letter grade” breakdown.

All testing will be done will be online. A schedule of when the unit exams can be found with the Chapter schedule that is listed below.

There are 9 chapter quizzes, in addition to the three, 100 point unit exams scheduled. The comprehensive final exam will consist of 100 points. There will be 4 assignments during the semester. Test scores, assignments, and quizzes will be added and grading will be based on the above grading scale percentages.

Exams: Students will take 3 online exams in Blackboard, each test will cover 3 chapters and will be multiple choice, true false, or matching questions only. The exams will be timed, students will have 1 hour and 15 minutes to take the exam. Exams are worth 100 points.

Quizzes: Students will take 9 online multiple choice quizzes in Blackboard, each worth 10 points. Students will be able to retake the exam multiple times until all questions are answered correctly. Quizzes are due before the first class each week as shown in the schedule below. Thus, with the exception of one week, quizzes are due each Monday before class on that week’s corresponding chapter.
Final Exam: The 30 question PSYC 2300 assessment will be used as part of the final exam and instructors should create 20 additional questions so the final is a total of 50 questions and is worth 100 points. The final exam should be given online as well, on the scheduled final exam date, and will be timed at 2 hours.

Assignments: Assignments will be worth 10 points. There will be a total of 6, 4 of which have been agreed upon by faculty and are outlined below. Assignments may be given in class or as take home work. The other 2 assignments are worth 10 points as well but instructors are free to decide what type of assignment they’d like to use. Assignments are due the class period before the exam for that assignments section.

1. Compare/contrast the role(s) of a social worker / therapist, psychologist and psychiatrist. (Ch. 1)
2. In response to the nature versus nurture argument, students should choose the nature or nurture side as being the dominant influence on personality and defend their choice. (Ch. 2)
3. Handout 1 - Classical Conditioning assignment (Ch. 5)
4. Handout 2 - Labeling and description of the neuron (Ch. 3)
5. Handout 12.1 - Personality Disorders assignment (Ch. 12)
6. Handout 3 - Social Psychology (Ch. 10)
Summary of Points Possible:

- Exams 3@100 points each: 300
- Quizzes 9@10 points each: 90
- Assignments 6@10 points each: 60
- Final Exam: 100

Total: 550 points
